the Microlite XL 211

Mobility brought up to date...

The Microlite XL 211 is the latest version of a model which has always been popular with users who work intensively on the move. Small and light enough to slip into a briefcase, the XL's 14" screen provides a comfortable working environment and its magnesium alloy casing withstands the hustle and bustle of a busy working life. And now the XL features the power of Intel® Core processors.
